

specific characteristics of their markets, which may differ based on the frequency of specific natural hazards in their state, whether it is flooding, earthquakes, tornadoes, or wildfires. This bill would preempt state authority and effectively hand this power over to a federally created entity with little expertise or incentive to effectively police adjusters.

A small, dark, handwritten scribble consisting of several curved lines.A handwritten signature in yellow ink, appearing to read "David [unclear]".A horizontal, dark, handwritten scribble with some indistinct markings.A handwritten signature in green ink, appearing to read "Michael [unclear]".