

Do you have non-profit policyholders among your insureds?

Are you currently offering business owners policies that include property coverage to non-profit businesses in this state?

Is your company actively writing commercial property coverage for policyholders that does NOT include liability coverage (such as for a business that chooses to obtain liability coverage through other means, such as an RRG)?

Is your company currently writing commercial auto policies to non-profit businesses in this state?

If answered "Yes" to the prior question, do you currently have any such policyholders among your insureds?

Is your company currently writing commercial auto policies that include only physical damage coverage and do NOT include liability coverage (such as for a business that chooses to obtain liability coverage through other means, such as an RRG)?
